This image shows a Facebook post from the 'Advanced Membrane Technology Research Centre - AMTEC UTM'. The main content is a photograph of a water treatment facility. In the foreground, a concrete structure with a blue metal railing is partially submerged in a stream of brownish water. Several people are standing on the concrete platform, looking towards a white truck parked nearby. The truck has a piece of equipment on its bed. The background shows a green landscape with trees and a fence. The post includes a timestamp '28.07.2016 10:06' in orange text at the bottom right of the photo. Below the photo, there is a caption 'Photos from Advanced Membrane Technology Research Centre - AMTEC UTM's post in Mobile Uploads' and a row of icons for 'Options', 'Share', 'Send', and 'Like'. To the right of the photo is the Facebook interface, showing the page name, a 'Like This Page' button, and a 'Write a comment...' field. Below that is a 'Suggested Pages' section with four identical placeholder boxes.
