I have been a part of the Malaysian Red Crescent for 11 years now. My son, Tunku Temenggong Johor, has taken over as Chairman of our Community Services Committee while I am now Royal Adviser. Like Tan Sri Jemilah Mahmood, I too am proud to be part of this worldwide organization.

We are the International Federation

The world's largest humanitarian network has 190 National Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and around 17 million volunteers. Together, we are the Interna...
