INTRODUCTION

Higher Education Leadership Academy

The inception of Akademi Kepimpinan Pendidikan Tinggi (AKEPT) in 2008 through a Memorandum Jemaah Menteri dated October 2006 was as an agency under the Ministry of Higher Education. Its aim was to enable top and middle managements of higher learning institutions to be exposed to a structured leadership development programme. In accordance with the tagline “Shaping Minds, Buildings Leaders”, AKEPT strives to design and provide initiatives on leadership development for leaders of higher learning institutions.

To date, AKEPT has continuously put an effort in its active role in shaping the higher education landscape in Malaysia; mainly on academic leadership and institutional leadership. The ultimate objective is to strengthen and support the holistic strategy of transforming higher education in Malaysia in line with the aspiration of Malaysia Education Blueprint 2015-2025 (Higher Education), which clearly states the need to develop current and future higher education leadership talents.

HIGHER EDUCATION LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

Leadership in Academic-Society Experiential Relationship (LASER)

24th and 25th January 2022 – The LASER programme is a strategic collaboration between AKEPT and Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) to develop the competency of leadership among higher education leaders. This programme aims to enhance and empower academic leadership in university and community engagement through translational research as a catalyst to community development and to fill gaps in the curriculum of higher education institutions. The first series of 2022 programs was successfully held on 24th and 25th January 2022 at USM, Penang.

AKEPT GLOBAL SERIES

International Webinar on Mental Health as The Core of Institutional Well Being: The Roles of Institutional Leaders

27th January 2022 – AKEPT in collaboration with Kulliyah of Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences, International Islamic University of Malaysia (IIUM) have successfully conducted the first 2022's AKEPT Global Series: International Webinar on Mental Health as The Core of Institutional Well Being – The Roles of Institutional Leaders with the theme of “Promoting Mental Health and Well Being Among HLIs Community” on Zoom platform. It was also premiered live on IIUM official YouTube channel. The webinar has received 511 registration and attended by about 813 participants on Zoom and almost 2.3K views on its YouTube LIVE with great engagements.

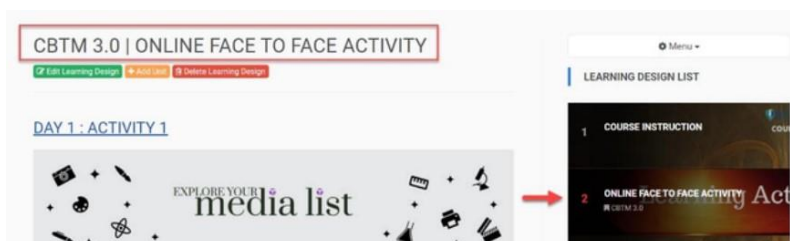

The one-day webinar has gathered renowned speakers from various backgrounds with experience handling the mental health and well-being issues surrounding them, either personally or work related. These serve as essential bases to develop a set of informed way forward to address mental health issues in higher learning institutions. Undeniably, institutional leaders have to improve and develop relevant competencies, including positive values on perseverance and resilience when dealing with crises-related issues. To summarise, it is essential for HLI to design structure and policy related to mental health and well-being of the academic community i.e the students, academics, staffs and people working inside the HLI, alongside the attention given to physical health for the benefit of its community and public at large.

Talent Management for Excellence (TaME) Series 2021-2022 | AKEPT

MODULE 9: FUTURE OF HUMAN RESOURCE

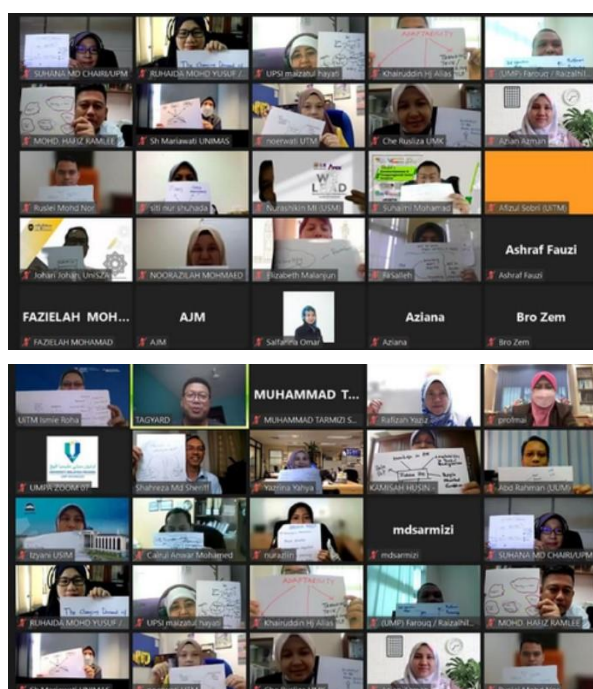

By Prof. Ts. Dr. Noor Maizura Mohamad Noor (UMT) & Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ismie Roha Mohamed Jais (UiTM)

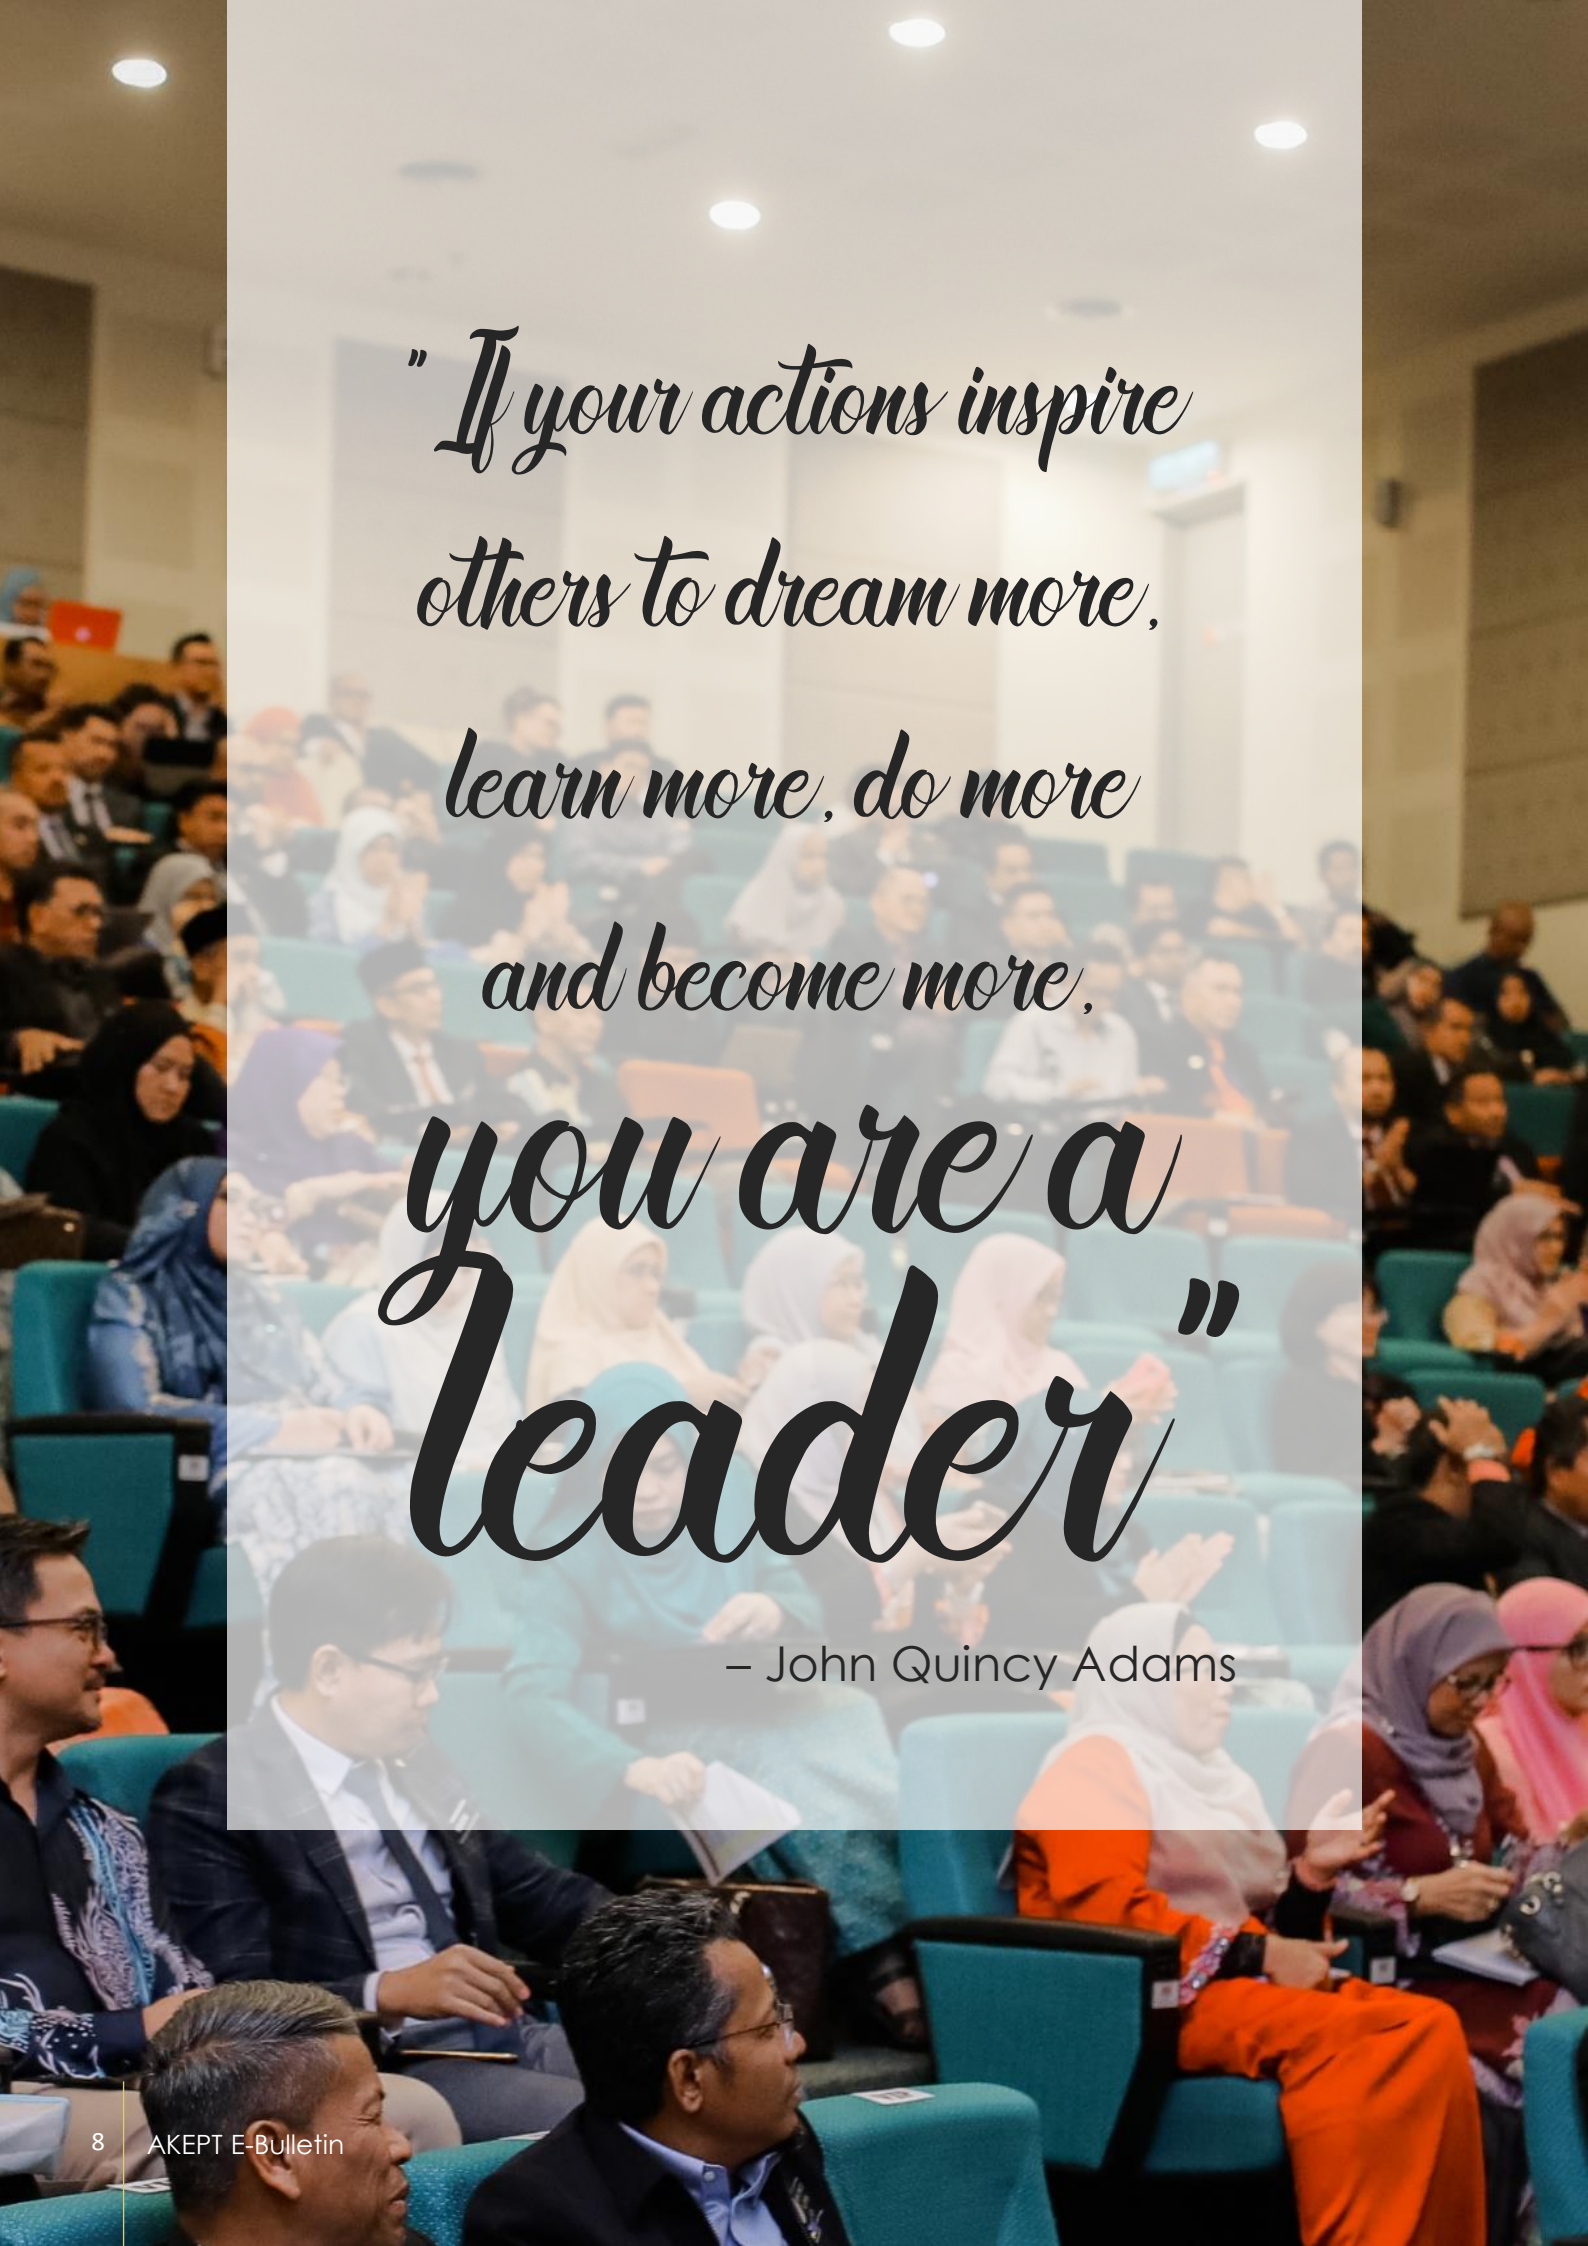

7th and 8th February 2022 – Module 9 aims to uncover data-driven insights using analytics skills that aid in strategic decision making & reporting for talent succession planning. Case studies and sharing of practices are highlighted in the discussion in order to exchange ideas and evaluate the new demands and how these will implicate human resource profession in the future.

At the end of the module 9, participants are able to understand the changing roles of human resource in organisation as well as identifying technology tools that will assist the HR division in making strategic decisions for talent management process.

A total of 40 participants had participated in the group discussions and assignments to help in getting better understanding on the concept of future HR. It is believed that this program and the topic discussed today will help to give some knowledge to the talent management partners at Public Universities in an effort to help the Ministry manage the empowerment of leadership talents in the country's higher education institution.
